1982-1983

RIDEAU RIVER RESIDENCE - OTTAWA, ONTARIO
VOLUME FIVE

PANDA- MONIUM

The 1982 Panda Game, though exciting, provided no surprising results. Ottawa U. continued its dominance over our beloved Ravens on a cool October afternoon at Lansdowne Stadium. Approximately 5000 fans of varying degrees of intoxication turned out to cheer on their teams and to enjoy (and participate in) the entertaining half-time show.

WANNA PARTY?

Carleton has once again this year proved that this is the place to go if you're looking for a "Good Time". Panda parties, toga parties and a surgeon party are just a few of many of Carleton's pride, great parties.

Carleton's campus, at any time of the day or night, is a beautiful place to work, play and live. The residence quad, the buildings on the hill and the ominous Arts Tower, in sun or in snow, enhance the complete picture of our modern campus.

CARLETON DAY . . . AND NIGHT

KISS MY CAMPUS

Even though the turnout was less than spectacular. Those who were there "made Out" just fine. This half-time show at a Ravens Game was an attempt to get into the record books with the world's largest kiss. Well, no records were set but you can bet some good friends were made.

AT YOUR SERVICE

Did you ever stop to think about all the students on our campus who take time to serve the rest of us? Working inconvenient hours and absorbing a fair amount of abuse; security guards, door men, cashiers, and cooks all combine in quiet efficiency to be at your service.

OKTOBERFEST

In late October a sell-out crowd polkaed the night away at the Rescom to Herbie Hanneman and his Band. The Amstel Company sponsored Oktoberfest which was such an enormous success it will more than likely become an annual party at Carleton. CHEERS.

RES FELLOWS

1ST LANARK

When Saga turned him down, ADRIAN FLYNN decided to take the Res Fellow route. Adrian describes his floor as promiscuous. He says he can't remember his most memorable moment but he was told he had a good time. Adrian will be returning for another shot at Res Fellowing because Saga still won't give him a job.

3RD RUSSELL

"My most memorable moment was meeting William Dubinski," says MARK TRACHUK. He says he will remember his floor because they don't choke but stay alive. Next year Mark plans to go to law school but if that doesn't pan out he will be heading to Gatineau to manage the CAP.

4TH RUSSELL

MIKE BALNAR wanted to make the best of his final year at Carleton so he decided to become a Res Fellow. Mike says his floor is the absolute best. He says he will always remember 4th as being the happy floor made up of happy guys. He would rather forget being asked by Hank the janitor to clean up the "human droppings" from his TV Lounge. Next year Mike will graduate to become happy and responsible.

2ND GRENVILLE

MICHELLE AGNEW became a Res Fellow because she wanted to live in Res and not have a roommate. Michelle's most memorable moment was pulling all the condoms out of the frosh kits before mom, dad and junior arrived. She will remember Orientation and conducting a floor meeting after the pub crawl. She would like to forget the pub crawl. Michelle says that her pet peeve about Res Fellowing is that "everybody and their dog knows where you are, and with whom." Next year Michelle will opt for sane life, in a sane house, with sane people.

4TH GRENVILLE

CAROLINE COADY decided to become a Res Fellow because she is interested in people and she wanted to support herself financially. Caroline says that the best way to describe 4th is "mischievous." She will remember the floor dinners, the Res Fellow Progressive dinner and being kidnapped by 2nd Renfrew. Next year Caroline will be living off campus to finish her degree.

2ND LANARK

BARB FULLER became Res Fellow to get her own bathroom. She says 2nd's floor members were the best. She will always remember her Floor Rep wanting to know where everyone was from. "I still don't know," she says. Barb would like to forget the floor's four by-elections. Next year Barb will be residing off-campus and continuing her studies.

3RD LANARK

Smiling PHIL HART came to Res for free room and board. He thought 3rd was kind of boring and he can't recall any highlights except for falling from a tree. Phil would like to forget that Jim Watson lived across the hall. Next year Phil will continue working on his second degree while attempting to form a hair transplant company.

4TH LANARK

KEVIN MCKEE feels the best way to describe 4th is "agony and ecstasy." He will always remember the "zany" people that made up the floor. His pet peeve was anyone who wanted the supply room key before noon. He is graduating from the school of Journalism and then it's off to Hollywood to act as a consultant for the next STAR WARS film or to help Phil with his hair transplant company.

2ND RENFREW

JOHN CASOLA decided to become a Res Fellow when he heard P.H. was reapplying. John says his most memorable moment was being initiated into manhood during orientation. He will also remember Panda and having his furniture moved up to 4th Renfrew. John will continue life in Renfrew next year as RRRA Vice-President.

3RD RENFREW

AL DASILVA initially decided to return to Res to meet girls. And Al certainly got his money's worth. His most memorable moment as a Res Fellow was being attacked by five girls. He would rather forget Friday of Panda. Next year Al hopes to move on to law school.

4TH RENFREW

PATTI HOLDEN was the only second time Res Fellow in this year's crop. The old lady decided to give it another shot after last year's great time. Patti says 4th was quiet and subdued, but she didn't mind. She says her most memorable occasion was initiating J.C. into manhood. Her pet peeve about Res Fellowing was being an authoritarian. She might stick around to become Carleton's first ten year Res Fellow.

4TH GLENGARRY

BRENDA PLEDGE became a Res Fellow because of her distaste for off-campus life (cooking, buses, cold weather). Brenda's most memorable moment was her birthday party at the Spaghetti Factory where she ended up paying for her own cake. She will also remember her first leaner, burnt toast alarms and finishing Century Club. Brenda would like to forget the day she lost her master key and booked a one way flight to Bolivia before she found it. Next year Brenda will be travelling in Europe.

7TH GLENGARRY

Stupidity and money were what attracted STEVE CANNING to Res Fellowing. Steve will remember his floor for the Botski weekend, sports, sports and more sports. Steve says that he would like to forget Black September, a month he will tell you about if you ask him. Next year Steve will be continuing his studies off-campus.

8TH GLENGARRY

JANE COURTEMANCHE became 8th's Res Fellow because she wanted to stay in Res and she didn't win Floor Rep. She describes her floor as great but wet (thanks 9th). Jane's most memorable moment was knocking her door down on her birthday. She will always remember water, and giving her first community standard for . . . water. She would also like to forget "a few hundred" leaners. Next year Jane will be continuing her Public Administration degree, living in a house that is leaner-proof.

9TH GLENGARRY

JON FERGUSON calls his floor "conspicuous, insincere and expansionary." Jon says he decided to be a Res Fellow to get a practicum credit in his graduate Psych course. His most memorable moment was noon, May 31, 1983. Jon will remember 9th as being wet - constantly. Next year Jon will be heading for law school or going back east to leaner-breed.

10TH GLENGARRY

LYNN LAVERY became a Res Fellow for economic reasons. Lynn says that 10th's motto was "Whatever happens, look as if it were intended." She says her most memorable moment was being punched in the jaw by a guy at 2:30 in the morning. The moment she'd most like to forget is being caught by a floor member as she hit the guy back. Next year Lynn will be working for the NDP Health Critic at Queen's Park.

THE YEAR

RES WEEK

Res Week '83 saw several enjoyable events. The first annual Cocktail Party, the return of comedian Mike McDonald, The Second City Comedy Revue, Hypnotist Mike Mandel, and the res Risk Tourney were all included in the highlights of the week.

Rideau River Residence Association Inc. Carleton University

The past year for the Residence Association has been a re-building and growing year. After suffering from serious financial difficulties from previous years, RRRA finally turned itself around and began to operate as a much more efficient and profitable association.

Last year also signified the 20th anniversary of our community, and with the help of floor reps, res fellows, sr. residents and RRRA staff and committee members, we were able to plan an entire week of celebrations centering on the 20th anniversary theme.

Residence Anniversary Week began with the plaque dedication for Norm Fenn, with over 250 residence alumni in attendance, and ended on a successful note with a big band 40's night, in commemoration of Carleton's 40th anniversary.

The year was an enjoyable experience not only in financial terms, but socially as well. We proved that the more expensive "big name" bands are not necessarily needed to attract active participation.

With surplus revenue that was generated from more efficiently run operations, we were able to put several thousand dollars back into the community in the form of over 100 part-time jobs; renovations to The Bree's Inn and Abstentions; and several other projects that were needed to revitalize the residence community.

I would like to thank residence students from 1982-83 for your enthusiasm, concern and involvement you have shown towards your residence association.

It is with a great deal of pride that I leave office, having served with an executive and council that was as dedicated to serving Carleton University as this year's group proved to be.

The Residence Association can look forward to many years of growth and success.

Best of luck to Ken Moreau and his new executive.

Sincerely Yours,

Jim Watson,
President, RRRA

HERE'S TO A GOOD YEAR. RRRA Executive members, along with staff and customers, toast the newly renovated bar in The Bree's Inn. After many years of complaints about the old make-shift bar, RRRA entered the 80's with a new and spacious bar.

LEFT, Norm Fenn, former Dean of Student services at Carleton, and the primary architect of our own residence community, as we know it today, was honoured during Residence Anniversary week by a plaque dedication ceremony in his honour in the Res Commons. BELOW, Dave Sterritt and Bob Richardson stand beside the RRRA 20th anniversary logo painted during Residence Anniversary Week in the tunnels.

RESOLUTION STAFF 82-83

Special thanks to: Dennis Brown, our Mentor from National School Services; Bob Richardson for having patience in overseeing the operation; Dave, for coming to the photographic rescue; Jack Bags for his invaluable input; Dan Conlin, whose pix I still have to return; Z.B. Danaher for residing in 406 Glen; J.T. for allowing it; Sally Hong, for her award-winning cover design; Carling O'Keefe; Jim Watson, for contributions above and beyond the call of getting his photo in the book as many times as possible; Rula Lenska; and, above all, thanks to all of you who make res a great place to live. No, really.

TRAVEL CUTS

Going YourWay!

London

A variety of flights at the lowest available prices: round trips, one ways, and open returns. TRAVEL CUTS is the expert in London, the 'Gateway to Europe'.

Rail Passes

Eurail, Britrail and Transalpine are all available from TRAVEL CUTS. They're a bargain, and should be purchased here in Canada. A free Let's Go, Europe is given with each Eurailpass purchased.

Skiiing

Rockies, Vermont, Quebec, Whistler, Colorado, Utah, Sun Valley, Switzerland and others. Again, TRAVEL CUTS offers the usual ski destinations and packages, but can provide a unique emphasis on economy if you want.

South Pacific and Southeast Asia

Auckland, Sydney, Kuala Lumpur, Bangkok, Singapore, Hong Kong, Tokyo - these are just a few of the cities TRAVEL CUTS can send you to at Canada's lowest rates.

TRAVEL CUTS

4th Level Unicentre
Carleton University
Ottawa Ontario K1S 5B6

Sun Spots

Florida, Mexico, Hawaii, Bahamas, Barbados, Cuba, Trinidad, Tobago, and other Caribbean islands. TRAVEL CUTS offers all the usual destinations and packages, plus many little-known bargain opportunities and delightful out-of-the-way places. This winter, TRAVEL CUTS will offer special sales on many southern destinations, so watch your local press for details.

Christmas Charters

TRAVEL CUTS offers a series of student charters at Christmas between Vancouver, Edmonton, Toronto and other major Canadian cities. For the best price going home for Christmas, contact your nearest office.

Language Learning on the Spot

Learn French in Paris, Italian in Florence, Spanish in Madrid, German in Zurich, many other cities to choose from. Courses are at all levels, with immersion programs ranging from three to 13 weeks at very affordable rates.

International Student Identity Card (ISIC)

For only $5, the CIS-sponsored ISIC entitles you to great savings on travel, housing, food, culture and entertainment in Europe and elsewhere. Over 1,000 Canadian merchants coast to coast offer discounts to ISIC holders on everything from pizza to car rentals.

Student Work Abroad Program (SWAP)

You can work for a summer in Britain, Ireland, Belgium or New Zealand.

A unique cultural and work experience - and a very economical way to spend some extended time abroad.

Worldwide Student Flights

With a valid ISIC, you can fly between overseas cities at substantial student-only savings. These flights are available in Canada only through TRAVEL CUTS. Flights are offered between Europe, the Near East, India, Southeast Asia, Japan and Australia.

Paris and Amsterdam

For these cities - the most popular student travel destinations next to London - TRAVEL CUTS offers special flight programs featuring the lowest available fares, confirmed reservations, and open return tickets allowing you to stay as long as you wish up to one year.
